

Joyful Discovery From Home

Enjoy these Online Resources from Boston Children's Museum

Each of these resources is available for free to any parent, teacher, or other caregiver that wishes to use them.

Boston Children's Museum Website

<https://www.bostonchildrensmuseum.org>

100 Ways to Play

<https://bostonchildrensmuseum.org/learning-resources/100-ways-play>

Boston Children's Museum is closed, but you can still play. We have chosen 100 of our favorite Ways to Play, and we share them with you. See how many of these 100 Ways to Play you can try together!

Parent & Educator Resources

<https://bostonchildrensmuseum.org/learning-resources/parent-educator-resources>

Boston Children's Museum has been creating curriculum, activities and other resources for educators and parents for 100 years. These resources are used in every state in the United States and in over 100 countries around the world and are rooted in decades of understanding how children learn most effectively and how adults can best support that learning.

Beyond the Chalkboard

<http://www.beyondthechalkboard.org>

Hundreds of activities for afterschool leaders, parents, and teachers, with a special NASA section!

Social Media

Following our Boston Children's Museum's Facebook and Instagram pages would be good for families with young children to do as we post Museum content as well as non BCM content that followers may find useful and engaging.

Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/BostonChildrensMuseum>

Instagram <https://www.instagram.com/bostonchildrensmuseum/>

Power of Play Museum Blog

<https://bostonchildrensmuseum.wordpress.com/>

Lots of tips and information for parents including a new blog about working at home with kids.

Additional Educational Resources

<https://tinyurl.com/vaq7raf>

Free homeschool worksheets, educational apps for blind, low vision, deaf and impaired students, online reading help for pre-K to second grade students, educational games, and SO much more.

